Fall 2009 Newsletter

The Community Center's Mission:

The mission of The Donald Heiter Community Center, a non profit organization, is to strive to be a center of the community, providing innovative responsive programs and welcoming facilities with broad volunteer and financial support from the community. The Center addresses community concerns, and supports the wellness of the community for its entire people.

Donations Welcome

The DHCC is a 501 (C) (3) tax exempt non-profit organization. Our budget is supported by grants, local contributions, government allocations, and participant fees. Please consider a contribution to the Center. For a private meeting to discuss a possible contribution to the Center please contact our office. We will gladly give tours, present to a group, or help you create a planned gift for the Center.

Programs & Special Events

Weekly Programs for Kids

After School Program

The Donald L. Heiter Community Center's Academic Enrichment After School Program combines learning and recreation. Every day, a one hour study session is offered to students. Students are provided with the resources and assistance they need to get their homework completed. The program also provides many recreational activities such as arts and crafts, board games, physical activities, and trips to the local parks. Children from Lewisburg elementary schools have the option to travel via bus directly to the Center, where our staff will escort them safely into the building. Space is limited and pre-registration is required.

Monday-Friday

Dates: Ongoing while Lewisburg School District is in session

Time: 3:00-7:00 pm

Ages: 5-13

Cost: $5.00 per day, per child + $20.00 registration fee

No-School Activity Days

On the days that Lewisburg and Milton School Districts are closed for holiday breaks, teacher in-service trainings, etc., The Donald L. Heiter Community Center is open for business! We have games, crafts, snacks, a hot lunch, and much more!

Other Programs & Events

Holiday Celebrations

Every season, we educate our participants on the holidays that occur during that season. Planned activities help to educate the children on holidays that are celebrated by individuals all over the world. This gives children a broad understanding of other cultures, traditions, and history. Upcoming celebrations are being planned today. Call the Center for more information.

Halloween Celebration

Wear a costume to our Halloween party! We will enjoy snacks, games, crafts, and more.

Date: October 30, 2009

Time: 4:30-6:30 pm

Ages: 5-13

Cost: Free (Donations welcome!)

Seasonal Celebrations

Join us for the following parties; Spring Fling, Winter Festival, Fall Fling, and the Summer solstice, where we will rock in the new season. Activities typically include egg races, coloring contests, games, food, and much more. Contact the Donald L. Heiter community center if you would like to help out with these events.

Cost: Free (Donations welcome!)

Holiday Closings:

The Community Center will be closed to the public on the following days:

New Year's Eve Day

New Years Day

Memorial Day

4th of July

Labor Day

Thanksgiving (& the Day After)

Christmas Eve

Christmas Day

Community Thanksgiving Dinner

Come join the community center family for a traditional Thanksgiving meal. Please call the office today if you would like to help with this event.

Date: November 25, 2009

Time: 5:00-7:00 pm

Cost: Free (Donations welcome!)

New Years Eve Sleepover

Don't feel guilty about ringing in the New Year while your children are at home with a babysitter when they could have their own party at the Community Center. Your children will enjoy games, music, party hats, snacks, and a midnight sparkling apple cider toast! We will ring in the New Year kid-style (and get some sleep too!). Pre-registration is required for this program.

Date: December 31, 2009-January 1, 2010
